He was sent home as an intructor in intelligent observation.

ASSASSINATION PROGRAM

It is said that the Russian Bolsheviki have adopted an "assassination program" by which all European anti-Bolshevikki Socialist leaders are to be killed. Hjalmar Branting, the great Scandinavian Socialist leader, is among those doomed by the Russian "Reds," the paper adds.

NINE SONS IN ARMY

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Sheoler, of Floyd, are among the parents of the country who claim the record for the greatest number of service stars. Mrs. Sheoler is the mother of nine sons now wearing the uniform of the United States. There are two other younger boys and one girl in the family. They live 22 miles from a railroad. Another record of which the mother is proud is that none of the boys has ever indulged in intoxicants or smoked cigarettes.

GRAND THEATRE

"Mothers of Liberty" described as the greatest film production that the world-war period has been responsible for will be seen at the Grand tonight. APPOINTED ON COMMISSION

Governor Davis yesterday announced the appointment of Robert E. Williams, Commonwealth's Attorney for Buchanan county as a member of the State Corporation Commission to serve in place of Commissioner Alexander Forward, who recently left for the Balkans with a Red Cross Mission, and who expects to be gone for six months. Williams is a brother of John W. Williams, clerk of the Virginia House of Delegates, and is 40 years old. He has been practicing law in Buchanan for 15 years and is now serving his third term as prosecuting attorney for that county. Opinion prevails that he will be chosen chairman of the commission. Commissioner Rhea is now acting chairman.

FATAL SHOOTING

Ralph Walker, 50 years old, shot and fatally wounded Mrs. N. E. Brown, 36, of Richmond, early last night, and then turned the gun upon himself, sending two bullets through his heart. Walker and the woman were rushed to a local hospital, where Walker died within 30 minutes. Walker is a Tennesseean, and Mrs. Brown is from Pennsylvania. Both have been employed at the Du Pont works at Penniman for some time.

SURGICAL DEPARTMENT OF RED CROSS TO HELP HOSPITAL

Pending further orders from Red Cross headquarters in Washington, the surgical dressings department of the Red Cross has thought it well to co-operate with the Alexandria Hospital and make dressings for it. The hospital is doing and has done such splendid work, that the Red Cross feels it particularly fitting at this time to offer the services of these trained workers. The surgical dressings rooms will therefore be opened Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday mornings from 10 to 1. All workers are urged to come and help.

RICHMOND THEATRE

PRESIDENT'S LETTER

Work of Seven Agencies in United War Drive Indispensable Says Wilson—Need of Money Just as Great Now as in War Time.

President Wilson has addressed the following letter to those having in charge the United War Work Campaign:

"I am sure the people throughout the country will understand why it is that I am unable to fulfill the desire of my heart to make a public address at this time in the interest of the approaching campaign.

It has been with sincere gratification that I have observed the wholehearted cooperation of the Young Men's Christian Association, the Young Women's Christian Association, the National Catholic War Council, the Jewish Welfare Board, The War Camp Community Service, The American Library Association and the Salvation Army in response to my request that they combine their respective financial drives in one United War Work Campaign, November 11-18, to secure the sum of at least $170,500,000 for their invaluable work. The wise economy of money and effort the increased efficiency which will result from a blending of experience, the creation of an atmosphere of truer understanding, the unmistakable evidence of a growing unity of spirit and the influence of all this in strengthening the national solidarity is reassuring in the extreme.

As you now stand on the threshold of presenting your appeal to the entire American people, I wish to renew the expression of my conviction that the service rendered by these welfare agencies is indispensible, and my earnest hope for the abundant success of the Campaign. The inevitable growth of the Army and Navy and the multiplying demands from France, Italy and Russia, make it clear that a generous oversubscription is highly desirable. No matter how distant the day of peace may prove to be, it will be followed by a long period of demobilization, during which the opportunity and need for the constructive work of these organizations will be quite as great as in war time, and I am glad to note that your plans contemplate serving the soldiers and sailors in this critically important period. I am particularly pleased to know of the comprehensive program of education to be carried out during the coming months.

Gifts that provide the service which this campaign makes possible are not so much gifts to organizations as gifts,—invaluable gifts,—to our soldiers, sailors and marnes and constitute an appropriate expression of our gratitude for their patriotic and unselfish devotion. The whole plan of the United War Work Campaign is inspiring and is most emphatically in the interest of the nation and of all the lands with which we are associated in these momentous days.

Cordially and sincerely yours,
(Signed) Woodrow Wilson."

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Next Sunday has been settled upon as the "Go to Church Sunday." It is expected that every church member will attend his or her church as a work of worship in these wonderful days, when the hand of God has been so manifest. It is hoped that every citizen may find his way to the church of his choice and emphasize the spiritual things of life. Let Alexandria open the evangelistic campaign as enthusiastically as recent financial campaigns.

EVANGELISTIC MEETINGS

Next Sunday union evangelistic meetings will open in the Protestant churches. Cottage prayer meetings are being held in many parts of the city this week. It is expected that several ministers from a distance will occupy pulpits next week.

Sanitary Fish Market will have on sale tomorrow and balance of the week Boston mackerel, steak halibut, large and medium white perch, large and medium rock fish, Potomac river pike, steak pollock, butter fish, fresh haddock, Jersey trout and Potomac river oysters 40 cents a quart. Just received a few choice trap rabbits. Stall No. 2, City Market. J. H. Robinson, proprietor. Phone 735, Open till 5 p. m.

ALEXANDRIANS.

Alexandria has responded nobly to all calls for War Work, and has met its quota of every demand.

Peace is now in sight, but our boys, your boys, are still in the service over there, or in cantonments, and our duty is to provide them with comforts and to protect them against evil influences through the seven organizations represented in the United War Work Campaign.

Every one should do their duty for the boys that have risked their all for us.

NO SACRIFICES WE CAN MAKE ARE COMPARABLE TO THEIRS.

We must raise now our $30,000. If we fail we cannot hereafter escape a sense of shame, when we meet again our boys face to face.

WAR WORK CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE

RED CROSS WORK NEEDED EVEN AFTER WAR IS OVER

An appeal to all the local organizations of the American Red Cross to keep up their work, even though peace is imminent, and after peace comes, was sent out last night by the war council. There must be no relaxation of effort by the American Red Cross chapters, said the appeal, until peace really comes.

"But even with peace," said the message, "let no one suppose that the work of the Red Cross is finished. Millions of American boys are still under arms. Thousands of them are sick and wounded. Owing to the shortage of shipping, it may take a year or more to bring our boys home from France.

"The cessation of war will reveal a picture of misery such as the world has never seen before, especially in many countries which cannot help themselves. The American people will expect the Red Cross to continue to act as their agent in repairing broken spirits and broken bodies.

"Our spirits must now call us to show that not the roar of cannon or the blood of our own alone directs our activities, but that a great people will continue to respond greatly and freely to its obligations and opportunity to serve."

DO YOU WANT TO BE A POLICEMAN?

Board of Police Commissioners Next Wednesday Night Will Elect Seven Privates—Pay is $100 a Month.

Alexandria wants seven more policemen and the pay is $100 a month. This announcement was made at a meeting of the board of police commissioners held last night presided over by Commissioner R. E. Knight in the absence of Mayor Fisher.

The board intended to elect four policemen last night. There were only two applicants present. It was then discovered that seven more men are needed to have the forces composed of eighteen men, including a chief, two sergeants and fifteen privates. Because there were only two applicants it was decided to postpone the election until next Wednesday night.

Members of the board are of the opinion that the increase in the salary of privates will prove an inducement for more persons to apply as the old salary for members of the force was $75 a month.

The board also at its coming meeting will elect two sergeants. There are now three sergeants on the police force.

The meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock in the office of the Mayor and all applicants are expected to appear in person.

ATTENTION!

Wednesday November 20, will be the last day on which cartons may be returned for shipment overseas. For the convenience of those who wish their boys to know that they have been remembered for Christmas the committee will be at the rooms of the Chamber of Commerce tonight from 7 to 9, Wednesday morning from 10 to 12 and Friday afternoon from 3 to 5.

Mrs. Charles Aubrey Callahan,
Chairman.

AID FOR GERMANY

Depends on Manner in Which Nation Complies With Armistice Terms

Washington, Nov. 14.—President Wilson yesterday promised the present German government to send adequate supplies of foodstuffs to its people, providing proper order is maintained within Germany and also that supplies will be distributed to all.

The President's message, which was sent by wireless to Germany yesterday, is in answer to an urgent request for assistance sent to this country Tuesday.

The outstanding features of the President's response are that it will serve to allay Bolshevism in the one-time empire, and also strengthen the new government. Taken in this light, it indicates an early peace conference, for with sufficient food supplies, and the accompanying alleviation of misery and suffering, the present government will naturally be looked upon as protecting the interests of all the people, and consequently will be strengthened immeasurably.

In Germany the struggle between the moderate and radical Socialists goes on, though little fresh violence is reported. The Ebert-Scheidemann faction is unequivocally opposed to stirring up class hatred and civil war, having learned a lesson from the Russian experience. Much like in Russia under Kerensky's regime, however, the newly formed councils of soldiers and workmen and peasants, constituted after the fashion of the Bolshevist Soviets, are now beginning to clamor for complete autocracy. The war cry against the bourgeois already is heard in the streets of Berlin and other big cities.

Fear of famine holds the balance of power in the revolt-swept Fatherland. It is the Socialist regime's chief weapon for by telling the masses that only if order is maintained can starvation be averted, and American and allied aid be enlisted for the approaching winter, inevitably the hardest Germany has ever gone through.

FUNERAL NOTICE.

The funeral of Linwood Kidwell will be held on Friday, November 15th, at 3 P. M., from the home of his parents, 420 North Alfred street. Friends and relatives invited. 271-1t.

JUSTIFIES HUSBAND

Court Rules Man Does Not Have to Keep Wife's Relatives.

New York, Nov. 14.—Too many "inlaws" is a justifiable cause for desertion, according to a decision handed down by Justice Kelby in Supreme Court, Brooklyn, yesterday.

In answering Mrs. Rose Basile's suit for separation on the charge of desertion, Stephen Basile, real estate operator, said his domestic troubles were caused by too many "in-laws" living in his home.

During his eleven years of married life, he said, his wife's people had lived with him so they could save money. Justice Kelby, in refusing the separation, said:

"A married man is not obliged to make his home in an apartment of six with his wife, child, two sisters-in-law, one brother-in-law, father-in law, and mother-in-law, especially when the relatives by marriage are not in need."

FOR DRAFT MEN OVER 37

They Need Not Fill Out Questionnaires But Must Return Them at Once to Local Draft Board.

The local draft board today was advised that draft registrants who on September 12 1918, had reached their thirty-seventh birthday must return their questionnaires to the local board although it is not necessary that they fill out the questionnaire. This is provided in the supplemental order issued yesterday from the office of Provost Marshal Crowder yesterday. Many registrants of the foregoing age today complied with the request by returning the questionnaires without being filled in.

The new order follows: "The President directs that registrants who on September 12, 1918, had attained their 37th birthday and who have received questionnaires need not fill out such questionnaires, but they are immediately to return such documents to their local boards. No charge of delinquency will be entered against any such registrant for his failure heretofore to fill out and return his questionnaire, even though the time set for such return is now passed, and all charges of delinquencies heretofore entered against such registrants of such ages who have failed to return their questionnaire within the time limits set therefo will be canceled and made of no effect."

SUICIDE IN LAKE

German-American Ends Life After Kaiser Abdicates.

New York, Nov. 14.—A pair of bedroom slippers dangling from two naked feet just above the surface of Conservatory Lake in Central Park led to the discovery here yesterday of the suicide of Arnold D. Cramer, 77, a German-American, who had come to this country half a century ago.

Cramer's son, an American soldier was killed in action a month ago. Early this morning Cramer, who had not believed reports of the Kaiser's abdication, wept when he read the confirmation in the newspaper. Then he disappeared. The lake in which his body was found is only five feet deep at its deepest point. Cramer's head was extricated only with difficulty from the mud bed.

BAN LIFTED

Food and Fuel Administrations and War Industries Board Raise Restrictions.

The blessings of peace began to be showered upon the American public yesterday by many branches of the government.

Restrictions upon wheat, sugar, tin, wool, petroleum, building and the packing of hosiery, underwear and knit goods were lifted in whole or in part.

Late last night the Food Administration announced that the war restrictions upon the use of wheat and tin had been entirely removed and that the sugar ration had been increased from three to four pounds per person per month, in the beet sugar producing States and in the cane sugar producing territory of Louisiana, effective December 1.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear husband and father, EDWARD TRUMBLE, who departed this life two years ago today, November 14, 1916.

Two years have passed and still we miss him,
Friends may think the wound has healed,
But little do they know the sorrow
That lies within our hearts concealed.

AMERICANS TAKE BRIEY

Large Part of Great Iron District Evacuated by Germans—Will Occupy Alsace-Lorraine by Sunday.

Paris, Nov. 14. (12:10 p. m.)—The Americans have occupied Briey.

Paris, Nov. 14. (10:30 a. m.)—The allied armies on the west front, following the evacuating Germans, are reported to have started forward this morning.

Strassburg, Metz, Colmar, and various towns in Alsace-Lorraine, are expected to be occupied Sunday.

The Americans are said to be marching toward Metz and Strassburg. Marshal Foch, in behalf of the Allies, will take possession of those two cities in the presence of President Poincare, Premier Clemenceau, and the other French ministers.

A large part of the great Briey iron district already has been evacuated.

As the evacuated towns and villages in Alsace-Lorraine are taken over the German civil administrations are replaced by French officials. Reoccupation of the restored provinces will be carried out precisely the same as that of northern France, as it is considered that Alsace-Lorraine has been occupied by the enemy forty-eight years, instead of four years.

American troops are co-operating with the French in the work of repatriation. The Germans have officially complained of the hostile attitude of the inhabitants of Alsace-Lorraine as they withdrew.

Colmar is only ten miles from the allied lines, as they were at the close of the hostilities. Metz is twelve miles and Strassburg thirty miles from the lines.

MAY TRY HUN CHIEFS

Possibility of Bringing Ex-Kaiser And Arch-Accessories to Bar of Justice Discussed.

The possibility of bringing William Hohenzollern and his arch accessories before a bar of justice to answer for high crime against the laws of nations and humanity was discussed in Washington yesterday by experts in international law.

There was no official comment from any government source, nor would those who talked informally venture unqualified assertions as to the former Emperor's lack of immunity from arrest and extradition from the haven he has sought within the borders.

The little kingdom of Holland has been placed in a most difficult and embarrassing situation by the arrival of her unexpected guests, who are said to include many members of the German great general staff.

EX-KAISER A PRISONER

William Hohenzollern Accepts Holland's Terms of Internment

Amsterdam, Nov. 14.—"Count Wilhelm Hohenzollern," which is the way the former Kaiser now signs himself, has accepted Holland's terms of internment and is a virtual prisoner at the Dutch castle of Middachten, which once sheltered the fugitive King Charles II of England. The Count, who five days ago was an emperor, must stay at this historic castle, belonging to Count Charles Bentinck, at least until peace is declared. By that time demands for his extradition and trial are expected to be made either by the allies or the German people, or both.

The former crown prince of Prussia is not dead. According to latest reliable information he is at Maastricht, Holland. Reports of his assassination persist, one even asserting his body has been found. Word that he is alive comes direct from Maastricht however.

THE CASE OF GERMANY

With red republicanism in evidence in most cities of Germany, while the country is smartling under the realization of total defeat and the loss of territory acquired by that power during the past half a century or more, the people of the Fatherland are beseeching the United States to use its influence in furnishing them with the necessaries of life as bleak winter approaches.

Some people in the United States, thoughtlessly, announce themselves averse to granting the petition, and are disposed to treat the Germans as they have treated others during the past four years or more.

We suggest it would be better to stop and consider. Germany has been defeated. The mailed fist is now a reminiscence. The words blood and iron are used derisively by the civilized world. The German people have surrendered unconditionally; they are now helpless and doubtless suffering. The question is pertinent, Should we close our eyes to their supplications at this time when they can do us no harm?

People of the allied countries have been praying for years for a victory over these warlike people. Their prayers have been answerd, and in a manner far greater than we had anticipated. We uttered our supplications in the name of the Prince of Peace who taught us to love our enemies and to do good to those who hate us.

Date obolum Belisario was a proberb among the ancient Romans. Translated it means, "Give a farthing to Belisarius." This great general was reduced to beg in his old age; hence the saying.

The ex-kaiser is now a prisoner in Germany. He is not likely to become as Belisarius, but he is enduring the greatest humility. Holland was one of the plums he intended plucking had the war resulted according to his program. He is now under the guardianship of this little nation. Our President, who has guided the ship of state throughout the late war, is disposed to listen to the appeal of the Teutons for food. Let his will be ours.

THE TERMS.

The Allied and American forces will not only occupy all the territory on the west side of the Rhine as fast as the Germans retire—and they have got to get out in 14 days or be prisoners of war—but American and Allied troops will hold the Rhine crossings at Mayence, Coblantz and Cologne, with bridgeheads at those points having a radius of 20 miles on the east side of the Rhine.

Thus the war will end with Allied and American troops on German soil, holding the three most important gateways into Germany. Whatever power or faction shall be in possession of the Burlin Government, it will hardly dispute any peace terms that the Allies and America dictate to it. We imagine that there will be no doubt in the mind of any German that the military power of his country has been destroyed, and that the Allies and Americans have won an unqualified victory, when they see enemy troops 20 miles east of the Rhine at three points.

The amount of artillery and transport, both rail and motor, which the Germans must surrender would make any effort to resume fighting, or to delay the determination of peace, futile. All territory that used to be Russian must be evacuated, so that it will be impossible for any German to pretend that while his country had to yield to the Allies in the west, it had made substantial gains in the east. The withdrawal of the Germans from the occupied parts of Russia will deprive the Bolsheviki of the support which has been essential to their retention of power, and with the Allies and Americans able to enter Russia, it is evident that the deliverance of the Russian people is near at hand.

Germany has to repudiate the two infamous treaties of Brest-Litovsk and Bucharest, so that nothing will remain to her of the spoils of her treachery and plots in the east and southeast. The capitulation of Germany is as complete as that of Turkey was. No coup d'etat in Berlin can shake the supreme position of the Allies and America in determining all the conditions of peace. The Allied victory is unqualified; the German surrender is unconditional.

DISGUSTED DIPSOMANIACS

Many amusing incidents are told of people who will have stimulants during the supposed "dry" regime in Alexandria. A few days ago a resident of this city made a trip to Washington for the purpose of investing in something which cheers. He purchased a pint bottle of what he supposed to be whisky. It cost $1.50. Upon reaching home he was not slow in unwrapping the bottle, drawing the cork and and pouring out a drink. He passed the glass to his mouth quickly and had swallowed most of it when his facial expression showed his disappointment. He had paid $1.50 for a pint of vinegar, and common vinegar at that.

Several years ago an individual whose predilection was to tarry long at the wine passed and repassed a saloon on upper King street during which he surveyed several large bottles of what he was sure were of the best brands of liquor. While soliloquising over the saying, "Thou art so near and yet so far," he determined to secure the bottles that night.

At an hour when graveyards are said to yawn, he approached gently broke a pane of glass of the window and extracted the bottles. He made his way to an isolated spot where he drew the cork and took a drink. To his great disappointment he had secured a bottle of aqua Cameroni—only this and nothing more.

Wonderful! Wonderful!

WHY?

Is it Any Wonder Cash Shoppers Are Taking Advantage of Our Prices and Big Selections Same as the Easy Credit Purchases? No!

What's the reason? It is plain to anybody who has been here. The average cash store doesn't keep up its assortment like we do. It hasn't the outlet. An endless army of credit buyers such as we possess creates "volume" forces prices down—an army that must be kept satisfied while wearing and paying for the merchandise, also guarantee quality to both the cash and the credit purchaser alike. But what's winning the cash business is style and our selections. The average cash store doesn't show as many styles. It doesn't sell at our prices either. You save money even if you pay cash.

WILLIAM'S SUITE

Amsterdam, Nov. 13.—Gen. von Falkenhayn, Mackensen's partner in the conquest of Rumania, and Admiral von Hintze, who held the office of foreign minister for the shortest period in the history of Germany, are included in the suite of former Emperor William.

The former Kaiser and his entourage were scheduled to leave Eysden for Arnheim yesterday. Monday's night dispatch telling of the official Dutch order of internment was confirmed yesterday.

In addition to the Kaiser and the Crown Prince, nine German sovereigns have been overthrown thus far.

The Grand Duke of Baden, Friedrich II, placed himself in the hands of his people.

Helgoland, Germany's Gibraltar, is under control of a soldier's council, as is also the entire German North Sea fleet.

With the news of the Kaiser's abdication, German soldiers and sailors deserted by scores.

Morale Is Winning the War!

An American is capturing a Hun—not because he is any heavier or stronger or older or bigger, but just because he has the fighting spirit which his enemy is losing.

That's morale.

"Where are those Germans? Let's get at 'em!" yelled an American before Chateau-Thierry. He was going under fire for the first time. He was wild to get there!

"We are constantly on the alert and are afraid the Americans are going to attack," wrote a German to his wife. He was captured before he could mail the letter.

"The men are so embittered," wrote another Hun, "that they have no interest in anything, and they only want the war to end, no matter how. We are only slaves of the Government." Now he is a prisoner, too.

Every despatch from France brings new proof of American fighting spirit—stories of individual valor. Morale makes Americans glad to fight for freedom. The lack of it makes Germans hate to fight for Prussia.

Our soldier knows he is a free-born fighter. He is no slave of any Government. He is part of a nation waging war. He wants to fight. He needn't be driven into battle. He yells: "Let's go!"

That's morale! Let's let them keep it! Let's keep them keen and fit and confident!

General Pershing finds that 900 men who have a hut to spend their evenings in are more effective than 1000 men without it. Napoleon called morale three times as important as other factors in war.

The strain comes with the first swift change from civil to military life, when these organizations give your man a place to meet his family, books to read and study, the hospitality of American homes, when whole cities are readjusted to the new conditions created by having a cantonment nearby.

It comes later, too, when a man has been off in some lonely camp for weeks, when the war itself seems miles away, when letters are irregular and home seems somewhere in another world, when a man has lived out in a gun-pit or a dug-out, has slept in filthy straw, when the bodies of his friends lie just beyond him, out in No-Man's Land.

That's when the men and women of your organizations overseas can show our fighters that they aren't forgotten, that home is following them up to the guns. Sports, entertainment, education, religion, warmth, and cheer and friendship—these are the forces that are working to keep morale up to a victory pitch.

On you, this week depends this question of morale. These are the seven recognized activities through which the Government enables you to stand behind your fighters. Their value depends on just how much you, as an individual, will give to help them hasten victory. Give as you never gave before! Give for morale!

WHY YOU SHOULD GIVE TWICE AS MUCH AS YOU EVER GAVE BEFORE!

The need is for a sum 70 per cent greater than any gift ever asked for since the world began. The Government has fixed this sum at $170,500,000. By giving to these organizations all at once, the cost and effort of six additional campaigns is saved.

Unless Americans do give twice as much as ever before, our soldiers and sailors may not enjoy during 1919 their:

3,600 Recreation Buildings	2,500 Libraries supplying 5,000,000 books
1,000 Miles of Movie Film	85 Hostess Houses
100 Leading Stage Stars	15,000 Big-brother "Secretaries"
2,000 Athletic Directors	Millions of dollars of home comforts

When you give double, you make sure that every fighter has the cheer and comforts of these seven organizations every step of the way from home to the front and back again. You provide him with a church, a theatre, a cheerful home, a store, a school, a club and an athletic field—and a knowledge that the folks back home are with him, heart and soul!

You have loaned your money to supply their physical needs.

Now give to maintain the Morale that is winning the war!
